REV 2:7

MARCH 2019

To begin, I am vaguely aware that there is a TV show entitled "The Crown", but I have never seen it and have only a basic idea what it is about! For the purposes of this article, I am more interested in the biblical theme of the crown, that I have been struck by as I have prepared for our Friday morning Bible study over the past few weeks.

Here's a brief sketch of the biblical journey of the crown.

The crowned King creates the universe and everything that fills it. The pinnacle of this creation is humankind whom He crowns with glory. They waste this authority by relinquishing their crown to a serpent's deception, who becomes the tyrannical ruler of a now fallen creation (Ephesians 2:1-3). But hidden in the curse is a promise - that the true King will return and re-crown humanity. He does it in the most incredible way - dying wearing a crown of thorns, with "King of the Jews" written above His head. After He is resurrected and has ascended, he sends the seal of royalty, the Holy Spirit to testify from within us that we are crowned princes and princesses. Later "the disciple (King) Jesus loved" had a vision of the Heavenly Kingdom in which there was a throne, and around it were twenty-four elders wearing their crowns. And he saw that when worship began, they voluntarily bowed low and cast down those crowns in reverence to the King on the throne. And then the whole Bible ends with the King and His re-crowned people reunited and co-reigning forever.

Here are a few questions...

Have you been re-crowned by the victorious King?

Have you definitively vacated the throne of your life and invited the rightful King to sit down?

If so, are the beautiful attitudes of the Kingdom (Beatitudes) visible in your life?

Are you a worshipper who bows low, casts down your crown, and loves to elevate the King? Corporately, as the King patrols our church (as in Revelation 2-3) does He rejoice at our faithful witness?

I close with a prayer, please use it now:

Lord Jesus,
I want to crown You as Lord of my life,
You are the Lamb who reigns from Your throne.
I want my life to be filled with a heavenly anthem that drowns out all other noise with praise.
Lord cause my soul to awake
and sing of Your glorious dying and rising!
I hail You as my matchless King for all eternity,
Amen

– JOBS FOR ALL...IN HIS TIME

KNOWING what to do with your life in Christ Jesus is both simple and well... not so simple.

How can that be?

Well, the Great Commission is clear and simple. In Matthew 28:19 the disciples (then as now) are told to go into all the world and make disciples of all nations... We are to make disciples.

Fine, but how and with what? Christ's Gospel answers the 'how', it's power and the love redolent within its words transforms lives in the strength of the Holy Spirit and by the grace of God.

And the 'with what' part of the question is answered by using the spiritual gifts God has given each and every one of you. Those attending the Network Course in the latter part of last year discovered their gifts and their passion for the work they are made to do in the Lord and for the Lord.

Recently, many of those who attended came along to an evening where those gifts were discussed on a one-to-one basis with a member of the church's leadership team with a view to placing that person in an appropriate ministry.

Indeed there are many ministries of God but the same 'Great Commission' and finding one's place in that objective is the desire of Christians the world over. Or it should be!

In Magheralin and Dollingstown we have been playing our part by running the Network Course and then following up with attendees with the objective that in the near future we will place them in ministries within the church that meet their unique gifts.

It's a process of prayerful dialogue and for some, 'interview night' raised more questions than answers! But that's OK. Building the Kingdom of God here on earth was never intended to be an easy process. It's about faith, love, perseverance, commitment, patience and being attuned to the will of the Spirit in our lives.

The point is, more than 50 people at the beginning of the Network Course raised their heads above the parapet and declared their intention to engage in kingdom building.

To paraphrase that well known catchphrase from the quiz show, Mastermind, 'we've started but God's not finished!'

Keep praying.

PROMISES, PROMISES, PROMISES...

Life's full of disappointments – some big, some small - some trivial and indeed some quite serious.

It's the nature of a fallen world that no matter how hard one tries to avoid the lows in life and capture the highs – it's inevitable that all of us face trouble at some point.

It's personal, deeply relevant to the bearer and not to be compared with others and their problems.

And in those times it's important to remember that turning to Christ and relying on His promises is an imperative for the Christian and not an optional extra, like the size of alloys one chooses for a new car. Yet those of us who claim Christ crucified are as forgetful as any body of people when trouble strikes or things don't go as planned.

It's always been the same. From the moment the Israelites had their backs to the Red Sea they were bemoaning their God who had brought them to this point. It would have been much handier they thought to have stayed a slave in Egypt – three square meals a day, a roof over their heads and if you played ball then the beatings weren't that bad. Being a slave was preferable to freedom in God especially when drowning looked the most likely outcome to their present predicament.

Well, we know what happened. God was good to His promise to deliver them out of the hands of the Egyptians and, as we know, He did so in a spectacular way.

Not so long after this deliverance the Israelites bent over backwards, so to speak, confessing their obedience to God but when Moses disappeared up the mountain to speak to God and get the Ten Commandments, he was only gone a few days when many (but not all) of the same people persuaded feeble Aaron to turn their earrings into a Golden Calf so they would have a god to worship. Moses after all hadn't come back. What a rubbish leader – taking time to listen to God! Whatever next?

In just days they'd forgotten their promise of obedience, failed to recognise how Moses pleaded for mercy with God on their behalf and how a loving God kept His promises to His people.

There's no doubt that there must be times when we exasperate God with our fickle faith and there is no doubt that in times of trouble we get exasperated with God, whom we want to treat as the genie in the lamp instantly granting our three wishes.

Yet the promises of God haven't changed and indeed God hasn't changed. He still loves us despite ourselves. There are many promises God has made to us – look them up and see how many you find.

A favourite is this from Hebrews 13:5: Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."

Enough said!

GIRLS FRIENDLY SOCIETY

During February the girls have been busy with their entries for our end of year competitions.

The Bible Study papers have all been completed and returned for marking and the girls are busy at the moment putting the finishing touches to their Arts and Crafts entries. Apologies to all parents for the paint covered children they have been picking up on recent Tuesdays evenings but I think they have been having fun!

The arts and crafts entries will be judged on Friday 15th March in Aghalee. Hopefully the girls will be well rewarded for all their hard work!

As well as competition preparation the girls are also completing their badgework and getting ready for our annual display which this year takes place on Friday 3rd May.

THE COLD CALLER

I sit me down for evening food
After a day at work
The phone then rings, I think, "How rude!
"I've barely raised my fork!"

"I'm sorry to disturb you, sir,"
(Now that's a fearful lie!)
"But I would like now to confer
"About your PPI."

I try to be a Christian, real.
And, though it isn't fair
To interrupt my evening meal,
I really mustn't swear.

So, if the chappie wants to chat
Well, that is fine by me:
"I have good news for you in fact –
"Christ died to set you free!"

Usually I hear a click
And then there's no-one there
But then I follow up this trick
By offering a prayer:

"Dear Lord, I thank you very much –
"I can resume my food
"But in your mercy, would you touch
"His heart, and do him good?"

Congratulations to Judith Kinnen who has been appointed Outreach Operations Co-ordinator following a recent recruitment process.

Judith joins the church staff team on a part time basis and will initially work on our new ChurchSuite database helping the parish to use it to its full capacity and potential.

Many of you will know Judith who is married to Derek with sons Simon and Andrew.

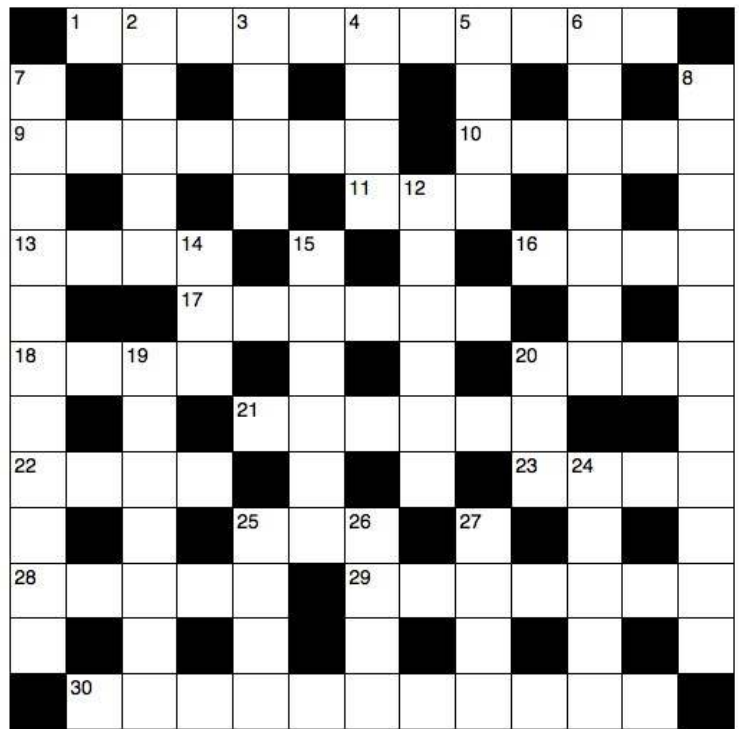

The parish is growing and the skills required to run it are increasingly varied so it's great to have Judith on board.

Her work in the parish begins next month. Please pray for her and her family as she anticipates this new and exciting role.

1ST MARALIN BOYS' BRIGADE

February has been a busy month on all fronts. Junior Section completed their Scripture Programme and sat their exam on 7th February. A big shout out to all those volunteer speakers who agreed to be a part of the JS Scripture Programme and aided in bringing God's Word to the boys.

Company Section continue their Scripture Programme with their exam being held later in the year, they too have enjoyed listening to the volunteer speakers.

You may recall in last month's notes I told you about an Officers and Company boy's quiz which was held in Annaghmore; well we sent a team of officers and a boy's team to the competition and we did not disgrace ourselves; our officers came second in the officer's team category and our boys came 2nd too, so well done to all those who took part and represented Lurgan Battalion in Portadown.

The Grade 3 Leadership skills course also got underway for the Company Section boys, with both Officers and boys enjoying the fun and fellowship in teaching and being taught these important life skills.

The company Section boys were also very active in Battalion Competitions; they took part in the U14s 4-a-side football competition mid February and Volleyball Competition at the end of February. Even though it's only February, our thoughts are already turning towards the Display and Family nights as the Officers and boys begin to create and develop the various display items.

In the background we are also preparing for our Big Bacon Butty Breakfast on 2nd March; our Officers are looking forward to this challenging event; this is a wonderful opportunity to feed the community both physically and spiritually and we pray that it will be fully supported by the wider Church family.

I would like to put out a call to everyone in this February issue. A continuing issue for BB, as it is with all youth organisations, is having enough officers/helpers to deliver the various programmes and meet the required ratios. Some nights are more difficult than others as some officers may have other work or family commitments that prevent them from being there, so having a good pool of officers/helpers is essential.

In 1st Maralin BB we seek to advance Christ's Kingdom, working with over a 100 boys across 4 key stages and yes it can be challenging, but it is so, so rewarding. It's like being part of a family!

Just as Simon, Carlton and Emma challenge you every Sunday through their sermons to step up as Christians, I am asking you to step forward as volunteers to become part of BB in any way you can; maybe you can't come every night, maybe you could come and give a talk or maybe you can fully commit and become an officer, in any case, you will be part of an amazing worldwide youth ministry. If you feel moved to answer this call you can contact me on 07753 851 832. I will give feedback next month.

DOWN AND DROMORE ST PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATIONS 2019

The diocese is partnering with Open Doors UK & Ireland for the annual St Patrick's Day Festival on Monday 18 March.

The theme is Counting the Cost – Standing with the Persecuted Church and we will have a unique opportunity to hear from an Egyptian Christian 'Michael Jones' and the President of Open Doors, Eddie Lyle.

"Michael" is a Cairo-based businessman and evangelical Christian who has addressed the UK Parliament. He will speak at the Festival Service in Down Cathedral (11.45 am) and Eddie will speak at the service of Holy Communion at Saul (9.15 am). The Prayer Pilgrimage from Saul to Downpatrick will also focus on the persecuted church and will be led by Chris Philips from Open Doors.

Christians in Egypt make up 10% of the population but around 50% of all the Christians in the Middle East. They face daily discrimination and intimidation. Christians are overlooked for jobs or promotion, university students are given bad grades or failed, schoolchildren are made to sit at the back of the class, shop owners are boycotted and hospital patients are not given proper treatment. Yet they refuse to give up their faith.

Please join us on Monday 18 March in standing with them and the persecuted church worldwide.

The Road to Calvary Magheralin Parish Church Palm Sunday 14th April 2019 at 6.30pm

At the time of writing the Choir has just begun preparations for a unique service on the evening of Palm Sunday (14th April). Titled The Road to Calvary, this service will explore through readings and music the significance of the events between Christ's entry into Jerusalem and Good Friday.

A feast of Easter music reflecting many of the themes of Holy Week will be featured. Not only will there be some very special choral pieces by the Choir, the congregation will have the opportunity to sing many well-known and favourite hymns which have been neglected in Magheralin, but not in other parishes, in recent years.

Services of this nature were once an integral part of the Easter calendar in Magheralin but have fallen into abeyance over the years for various reasons. If you enjoy choral music, congregational singing and wish to reflect on the Holy Week narratives and the message of Easter, please make this service a priority on 14th April.

More will be revealed about this service in next month's magazine.

Ken

During January and February we have been looking at the life of Jesus. Our Rector Simon paid us a visit in February. He asked the children did they like sleepovers and what were their biggest fears. This led him into telling us the story of Daniel using a video. His sleepover was in a den of lions but because Daniel was faithful to God and God was in control of every situation in Daniel's life, no harm came to him in the lions den. He told the children about putting their trust in Jesus just as Daniel had done. The kids even taught Simon a chorus which we love singing in the GNC.

Our next series of lessons are all about Paul and how God used him to bring the gospel to other parts of the world.

JAM & CLICK SERVICES

It was great to welcome Helen Clarke, her daughter Ali and granddaughter Kimi as our speakers to our February CLICK & JAM. We were thinking about Walking with Jesus in tough times.

We were reminded that we can all face tough times, how in those circumstances life can be very difficult and that sometimes God can seem far away and our faith can be tested.

Kimi, who spoke very bravely about difficult circumstances she had found herself in, pointed to Philippians chapter 4 verse 13 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me' as a very powerful promise which had encouraged and helped her and her family to cope.

It was wonderful to hear the witness of a family who had experienced tough times remind us that troubles will not overwhelm us and all because of God's love for us.

Philippians 4 verse 13 is our memory verse and we'll be checking it out in March!

Our next CLICK & JAM services are on St Patrick's Day the 17th March. That day we'll be reflecting briefly on St Patrick's mission in Ireland and thinking about how we can 'Walk with Jesus and tell others'.

Our next meeting is on Tuesday 5th March in Dollingstown Lounge at 8.00pm. Our speaker will be Mrs Walsh – she will be teaching us the art of book folding. Members are asked to bring a small paperback book with them (150 pages to fold). If you also have a 'bonefolder' bring that with you also. (A bonefolder sharpens a fold in paper).

We are looking forward to this and we would love to welcome new members to our group.

OR HOW TO COPE WITH THE PRESSURES OF DAILY LIFE

If you had to describe our society in a single word, the most appropriate one would be pressure. We live with pressure in every aspect of life, from our school, work or family life, to the big issues facing our world.

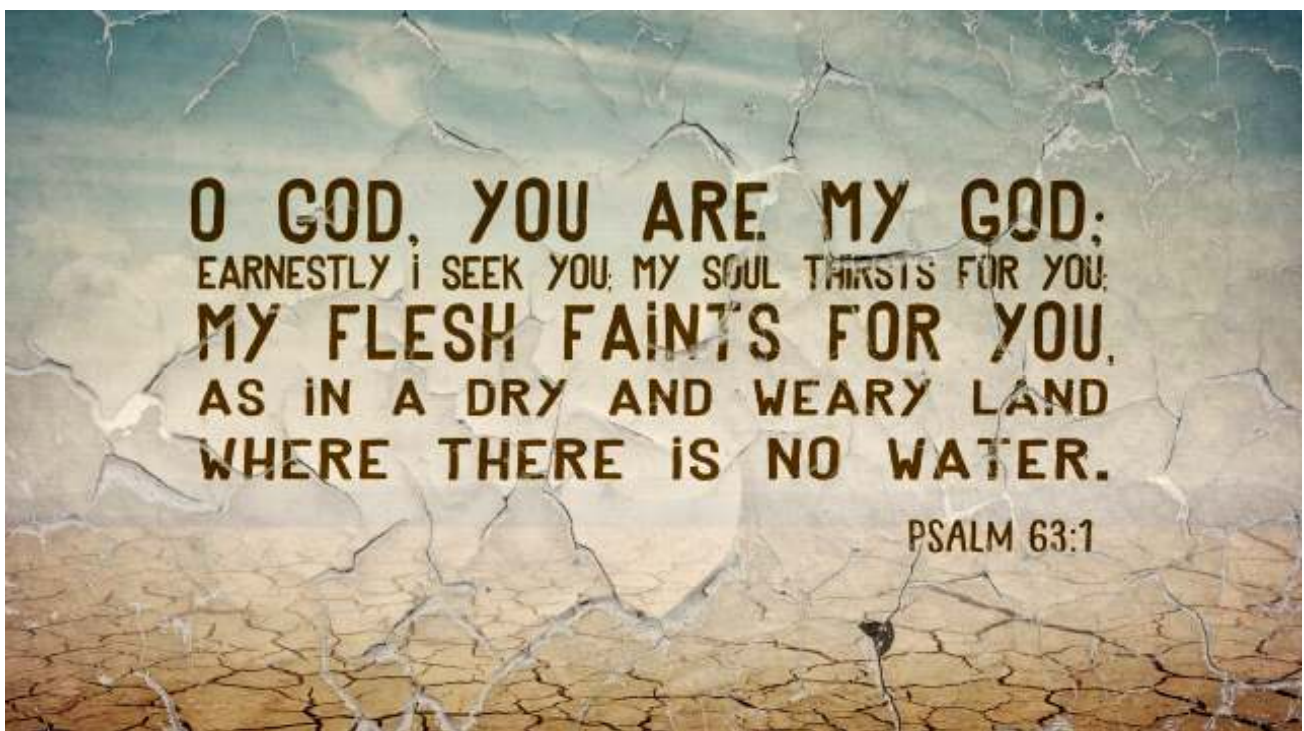

King David knew what it meant to live under pressure. His son, Absalom, led a rebellion against him, resulting in David fleeing for his life into the wilderness of Judah. It was there that he wrote Psalm 63. The psalm demonstrates the priorities a person of God under pressure.

God my desire: 'You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water.'(v1). David's physical thirst was an expression of his deeper thirst to know God. Even though separated from the worship of the sanctuary, he chose to seek God. When God seems distant or silence in our lives, we too can choose to seek him; this can be a vital path of growth in our relationship with him.

God my delight: 'Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you.'(3). David's delight in God is expressed in praise, as he recognises God's love for him. What gives us delight in our lives? Does it come from the things of this world or from God himself?

God my defence: 'I cling to you; your right hand upholds me.'(8). David is surrounded by enemies, but confident in God's defence and purpose for him. God uses our troubles and disappointments to fulfil his will, as he develops our character and trust in his purposes.

'Don't worry about locating your purpose. If you are seeking after God, your purpose will locate you.'
