

Registration of Vestry Members

Every member of the Church of Ireland who is at least 18 years old and lives in the parish, or who attends the parish church, is entitled to be registered as a member of that parish. In order to vote in parish elections, a parishioner must be a member of the general vestry. In order to become a registered member of the general vestry, the Constitution of the Church of Ireland requires that the individual must sign a form of declaration.
