Wake Up For Lent

Dear friends,

I hope we all long for progress in our spiritual lives. The desire of the Psalmist was to go from strength to strength, and likewise Paul, was to go from glory to glory!

This progress requires a momentum or a power to break through barriers and glass ceilings, so that we can go further and higher for Jesus than ever before. Many of us are looking to a new book, a new thinker, teacher or preacher, or a new philosophy of some kind to enable this progress. But I would suggest that searching in the "new" may be a fruitless pursuit.

In our Pillars of the Church sermon series, we have looked at Acts 2 for some distinctives of the early church and it's been a reminder to me that the basics of Christianity hold the keys to growth in the Kingdom of God. Like a long jumper, in order to propel forward we need to first retreat backwards. Only in doing this retreat, will we have the momentum to truly advance.

One of these pillars is prayer and I want to encourage a lent of seeking God in this way. And I would love you to do what I'm doing and piggy-back on the God-given idea of a clergyman down in Redcross Wicklow - read the following:

"We are all aware of the hopelessness, despair, pain and brokenness we see all around us every day, but God is still passionate for Ireland, and wants to radically transform and save it through His power and love. However, for this to happen, it is so important that Christians throughout this island are committed to praying for the Kingdom of God to come.

Jonah was given a great commission to go to Nineveh but decided it wasn't for him and therefore ran away from the call of God. He ends up in a boat in the middle of a storm, because of his disobedience. The crew are in turmoil, but Jonah is below deck, fast asleep. In Jonah 1:6 it states "The captain went to him and said, 'How can you sleep? Get up and call on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us so that we will not perish.'"

We believe there is a call for the church throughout Ireland to "wake up" and call upon God, so that with His help we can fulfil the Great Commission He has given to us. (Matthew 28:18-20)

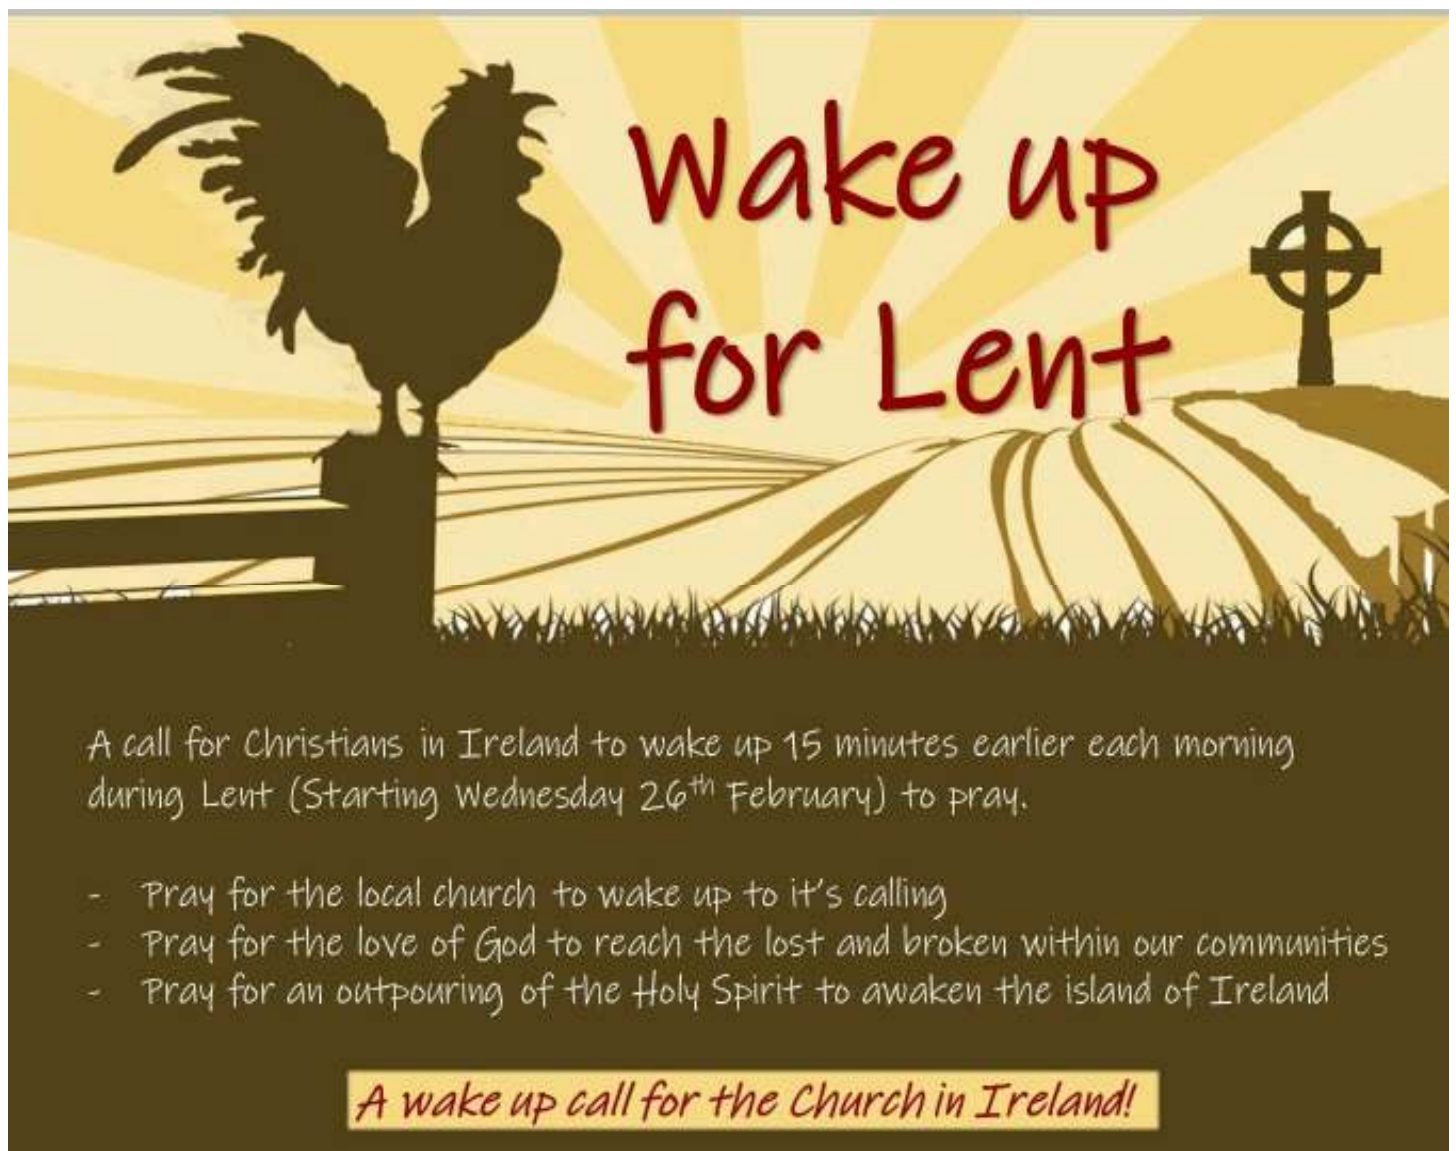

This Lent (Starting Wednesday, 26th February) we are encouraging people to set their alarms 15 minutes earlier each morning, to wake up and pray, focusing on the following 3 areas.

- To pray for the local church to wake up to its calling
- To pray for the love of God to reach the lost and broken within our communities
- To pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit to awaken the island of Ireland

If 10,000 people take up this 15 minute challenge over the traditional 40 days of Lent; the result would be 100,000 hours of prayer for our nation. What difference could this make?

I just love this! Will you join me in this daily retreat so that God might awaken our souls, our church and the nation?

NEVER MIND THE COVER – READ IT

BIBLES come in all different shapes and sizes and of course in the last few decades the marketing departments of large publishing houses have got involved to such an extent that the choice is almost bewildering.

I've got a camouflaged backed, waterproof ESV (I held it under the tap and the water just runs off it – amazing) bought on a whim just in case I found myself in the wilds being tracked by the enemy and needed to read a bit of scripture without being detected... as you do!

Indeed I pictured myself lying in the moss in a sheltered spot on the mountain with the rain pouring down and congratulating myself on being so wise as to buy a waterproof bible. Smugly I would look around and with a self-satisfied grin imagine everyone else wishing they too had bought a waterproof bible!

Women's bibles, men's bibles, journaling bibles, teenage bibles, study bibles, preaching bibles (clearly just for preachers – what's that about?) ... the list is endless and that's before you start listing the various translations and getting into arguments about the most authentic.

You can become like a rabbit in the headlights and end up neither opening nor turning a page!

And I know the emphasis in these various bibles is on the reader and the life questions he or she may ask at different stages of life or the tasks in ministry being pursued, BUT at the end of the day the word of God is the same today, yesterday and tomorrow.

Its enduring power is truly awesome and life-changing. We can dress up the book all we like and tailor some superfluous content to assuage life's challenges but John 3:16 and 17 remain the same whether it's a women's bible or a men's bible and Jesus remains 'the way the truth and the life,' whether the cover's pink or blue.

The important thing is that you read your bible – regularly – that you take time to ponder its truths and wisdom and life-saving, transformative central message – JESUS!

Indeed go further and join one of our bible studies – Wednesday evenings and Friday mornings - and learn a whole lot more with others seeking to consume the word of God. Or join a home group and do the same. We're studying John's Gospel on Friday mornings at 10.30am in the Lounge in Dollingstown and the Parables of Jesus at 7.45pm in the Minor Hall in Magheralin on Wednesdays.

So as we enter Lent let us all commit to reading our bible every day, getting to know the author better as we do and putting into practice what we learn. So, never mind the cover, just read it!

If we do that then we can change the world.

Every blessing

"PILLARS OF A GREAT CHURCH"

In one of the teachings in our sermon series "Pillars of a Great Church", Simon quoted the following poem/song written by Don Carson, an American preacher. We were asked to make it available in the magazine, please use it to meditate on the weight of this central practice of the church so that we would never take it in an unworthy manner.

A Shocking Thing

A shocking thing, this, that we should forget

The Saviour who gave up his life—
To turn from the cross, indifferent, and let
Our minds veer toward self-love and strife.
This Table, this rite, is habit—and yet
Christ's words pierce our shame like a knife:
While breaking the bread, the Lord Jesus
said,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
"Do this in remembrance of me."

Enamoured with power, surrounded by praise,

We set out ecclesial plans.
Efficiency hums, and we spend our days
Defending, promoting our stands.
Techniques multiply, our structures amaze—
The gospel slips out of our hands.
While breaking the bread, the Lord Jesus
said,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
"Do this in remembrance of me."

Oh, remember, remember the cross.
From my side issued water and blood.
This was no accident;
I bore the wrath of my God.

Remember my bed, the dank cattle shed,

Though glory was all my domain.
Remember the years of service and tears
That climaxed in lashings of pain.
By God's own decree, your guilt fell on me,
And all of my loss was your gain.
While breaking the bread, the Lord Jesus
said,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
"Do this in remembrance of me."

Remember my tears, Gethsemane's fears;

Recall that my followers fled,
That I was betrayed, disowned and arraigned—
The Prince of Life crucified, dead.
Remember your shame, your sin, and your blame;
Remember the blood that I shed.
While lifting the cup, the Saviour spoke up,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
"Do this in remembrance of me."

Oh, remember, remember the cross.
From my side issued water and blood.
This was no accident;
I bore the wrath of my God.

So now when we eat this feast simply spread

I blush I forget to recall.
For this quiet rite means once more we've fed
On bread that gave life once for all;
Memorial feast—just wine, broken bread—
And time to reflect on Christ's call:
While breaking the bread, the Lord Jesus
said,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
While lifting the cup, the Saviour spoke up,
"Do this in remembrance of me."
"Do this in remembrance of me."

HOLY WEEK & EASTER

This year, our Holy Week services will take place in Magheralin on the theme of "Awakening".

On Palm Sunday evening we will be having a special choir-led service at 6.30pm, and each night of Holy Week at 8.00pm we will have special times of worship and teaching.

We are especially looking forward to welcoming a special speaker, Mark Aldridge to share with us over the course of the week. Mark is Director of Church Leadership Development for New Wine after spending over 25 years in local church leadership. He has taught in 30 nations world-wide and is the author of Learning to Hear God's Voice. He is married to Kate and they live in Leicester.

Between the close of our service on Maundy Thursday and our service on Good Friday, we want to encourage (for those who are able) a 24 hour liquid fast. There will be devotional times and material organised for use during this time to help us all to focus on the incredible sacrifice of our Saviour.

Easter Sunday morning will involve a special Dawn Service in Magheralin and then Easter communion at our services at 9.30am and 11.30am.

Please join in fully with a Holy Week and Easter that will awaken our faith in Him afresh!

1st MARALIN BOYS' BRIGADE

Hi folks, it's hard to believe that it's March and we are already half way through the Spring/Summer session. The formal scripture programmes are now ended, with scripture exams for both Junior Section and Company Section having been undertaken.

Company Section also competed in the Battalion U14 four-a-side football competition which was won by 1st Moira, well done Moira!

In February some of our officers assisted in the running of the Grade 3 Leadership training nights for boys working towards their President's Badge, with 24 boys from different companies within the Battalion taking part.

Thank you to those officers who gave up the two Friday nights to take part.

The Duke of Edinburgh Awards programme also kicked off in February too with the bronze and silver teams taking part in a number of training nights and training walks in the Mournes.

As you can see February was a very busy month for both officers and boys.

The competitions continue this month, with the Junior Section Battalion Figure Marching Competition and the Company Section Battalion Volleyball Competition.

Our focus now turns towards our annual display night in April, which is a bit special for us this year as it's our 25th annual display since our Company reformed in 1995.

I will write more about the display next month, but suffice to say, brains are being wracked and creative juices are flowing in preparation for what promises to be a fantastic fun night.

And finally as I write these notes we are just over a week away from our fund raiser for 2020, it's our Boys' Brigade Big Bacon Butty Breakfast on 29th February, and we are praying that support for this event will be huge, I will let you know how it goes next month.

Footprints is a Lent series of daily scripture reflections from Christian Aid. They are available via email at caid.ie/footprints or you can listen to them on UCB radio.

"For many Christians, Lent is an opportunity to simplify, to reflect and to refocus on Jesus as we prepare for Easter. This year, I'm excited to take time each day to read the daily Footprints Lent Reflections and am praying that God will use these to redirect my footsteps in line with him. I hope that you will join me." - David Thomas, Church & Community Manager.

These reflections are written by church leaders, theologians, activists and practitioners from Ireland and around the world. Sign up and you'll receive inspiring daily email reflections throughout Lent and Holy Week 2020.

Each daily email will consist of a prayer and short reflection based on one of the Bible readings from the Revised Common Lectionary for each day during Lent and Holy Week from Ash Wednesday (26 February) through to Easter Sunday (12 April).

Recipients will be inspired through the daily Scripture readings to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with God. You will also be encouraged to consider the footprint you leave on the world, both in terms of the legacy we leave behind us and the impact of our lifestyle on people and planet.

PARISH PARTY

Throughout the last few weeks we have been looking at the life of Moses with God as his Deliverer, how God showed His greatness to Pharaoh and how God will never leave you. The next lessons on Moses are about the 10 Commandments showing how God wants you to get to know Him and how He can change your heart. We'll finish off the season looking at Pauls' missionary journey and how God taught him to Trust and Obey which will be the central truth to these lessons.

CAP

As you will be aware, "Time to Breathe" came to an end the week commencing 20th January 2020. The phone lines have literally been red hot from the lines have reopened & our centre is now fully booked up until April 2020. Whilst we are able to provide Hope for the families who have been able to book appointments and who engage with CAP's services we are mindful there may be other families who continue to struggle with severe financial burden and distress and for whom a timely appointment is not available. We welcome your continued prayers that the Lord will lay on someone's heart a desire to explore more about the work of CAP and to volunteer their time and care in the role of another Debt Coach for our centre.

Plans for the CAP Tandem Bike Relay around every CAP Service in Northern Ireland are well underway. This cycle will now take place over 2 weekends, and the Lurgan Centre are scheduled to commence cycling at around 9:30am on Friday 1st May 2020 and are due to cycle to Rathfriland where they will take on their leg of the challenge.

Many thanks to the members of our church family who have offered their time and services to date - it is still not too late to volunteer, so please do let me know if this is something you would be interested in participating in. We're hoping to perhaps have a Breakfast just prior to our start to encourage and support our cyclists on their way.. more details to follow in time.

Mouse Makes

Jesus, his disciples and his mother Mary had been invited to a wedding. The wedding was to last a week, but too soon the wine had all been drunk.

READ John 2:1-11 to find out what happened.

Where was the wedding?

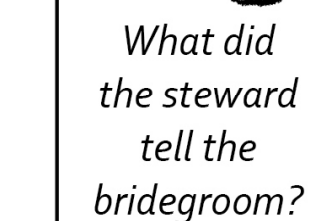

What were the water jars for?

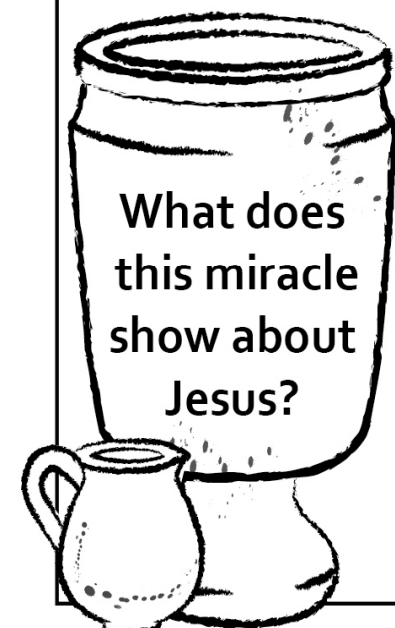

Which of Jesus' miracles was this?

How many water jars were there?

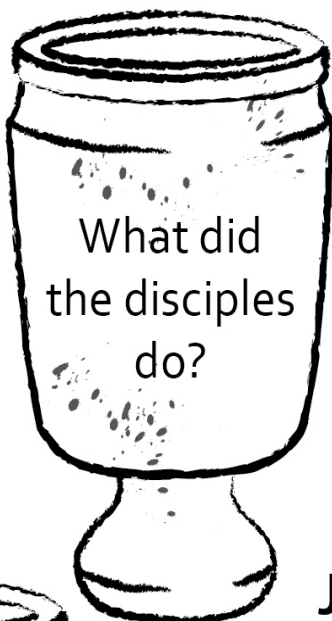

What did the steward tell the bridegroom?

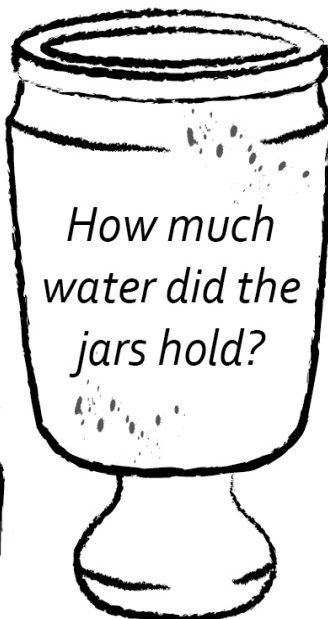

What does this miracle show about Jesus?

What were the water jars made of?

What did the disciples do?

What had happened to the water when it was taken out?

2 Timothy 1:13-14

13 What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus. 14 Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

I have the amazing opportunity throughout the week to listen to young people, to chat with young people, to comfort young people, to chat with parents about their young people, to celebrate with young people and have fun with young people. This is all the pattern of my weekly on goings.

But one thing above all compels and steers my pattern of the week. It is ensuring that in the Parish we maintain for our young people that pattern of sound teaching we find located in Gods' word. That has been entrusted to us. We see in 2 Timothy 1:15 examples of people deserting the faith, this is one of the hardest things of my job, please pray with me for those who would leave the faith. Pray they would look to Christ.

What is an essential sound teaching? That glorious good news that Jesus died for sinners like you and me. It is Christ's love towards me, in rescuing me, that compels me to tell the truth. To make it my pattern to not point people to some self help cure, not to tell people it will all be ok, but to point people to Jesus.

To God be the Glory.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

'Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow Me.' (Luke 9: 23)

These words of Jesus are spoken at a turning point in the gospel. Jesus challenges the disciples about His identity and their commitment to Him: 'who do the crowds say I am?' (18). It is at this point that He 'resolutely set out for Jerusalem' (9:51). On our journey through Lent, as we look to events of Good Friday and Easter, what are our priorities as Jesus' disciples to be?

To deny ourselves: this means to saying No to ourselves and Yes to God, as we humbly submit our will to His. Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane 'not My will but Yours be done.' (Luke 22:42). It means putting Jesus first in everything: our work, family, ambitions, possessions, marriage, finance and future. We will not be guided by self-interest, but by allowing God to show us how to live in His way.

To take up our cross: this reminds us that the disciple is not immune from suffering, as we follow Jesus along the way of the cross. Just as He carried His cross to Golgotha, we cannot avoid experiencing suffering in a fallen world. Every day we are to live in a way that demonstrates to everyone that we have died to ourselves, our selfish ways and ambitions, and seek to live for God. It means breaking old selfish habits and ways of thinking, as we allow God to renew us by His Spirit.

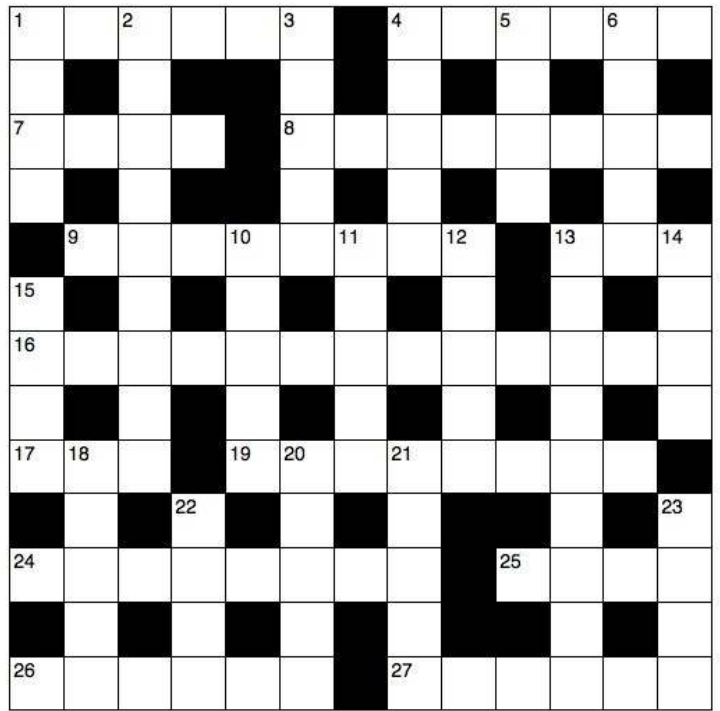

In all of this we cannot lose, because like Jesus, it is only through death that we find God's new life. 'He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain that which he cannot lose.'

A PRAYER FOR ALL MOTHERS

Thank you, Lord, that you fill mothers' hearts with love,
That you have instilled in their very being the need to protect their children if at all possible,
Thank you for giving them the gift of nurturing children, of teaching them, of comforting them, for feeding them and making a safe place for them.
For guiding them to be all that God has created them to be.
Fill every mother with love, wisdom and endurance,
with strength and patience and joy.
Give mothers the ability to forgive again and again.
Enable them to rely on You and call upon You,
because You will give them all they need.
In Your precious and all powerful name, Amen
